JOE WALCOTT WILL TEST LEWIS'S ABILITY NEW OFFER FOR

If White Boy Can Defeat the "Giant Killer" 'Twill Be a Great Feat.

BY ROBERT EDGREN.

Although this is supposed to be a dull season in affairs of the ring, fighting men seem to be busy. The welterweight title, long held by Joe Walcott, will be fought for to-morrow night in Detroit. Willie Lewis, of New York, is the latest aspirant.

Lewis, in acknowledging that he is a real welterweight, sets a good example to some of the other over-weight scrappers who claim to be in the light-weight class.

He has been fighting light-weights, but during the past year or so has been taking on weight rapidly. He now fights naturally at 140 pounds, within two of the welter limit.

Willie Lewis is a good boy, although he has never touched the top line in any class. He has one good punch, a short right-hand hook that carries a knockout whenever it lands. His left is fair, too, but not so good as the right. It was the unexpected right that brought him in a winner over clever Martin Canale.

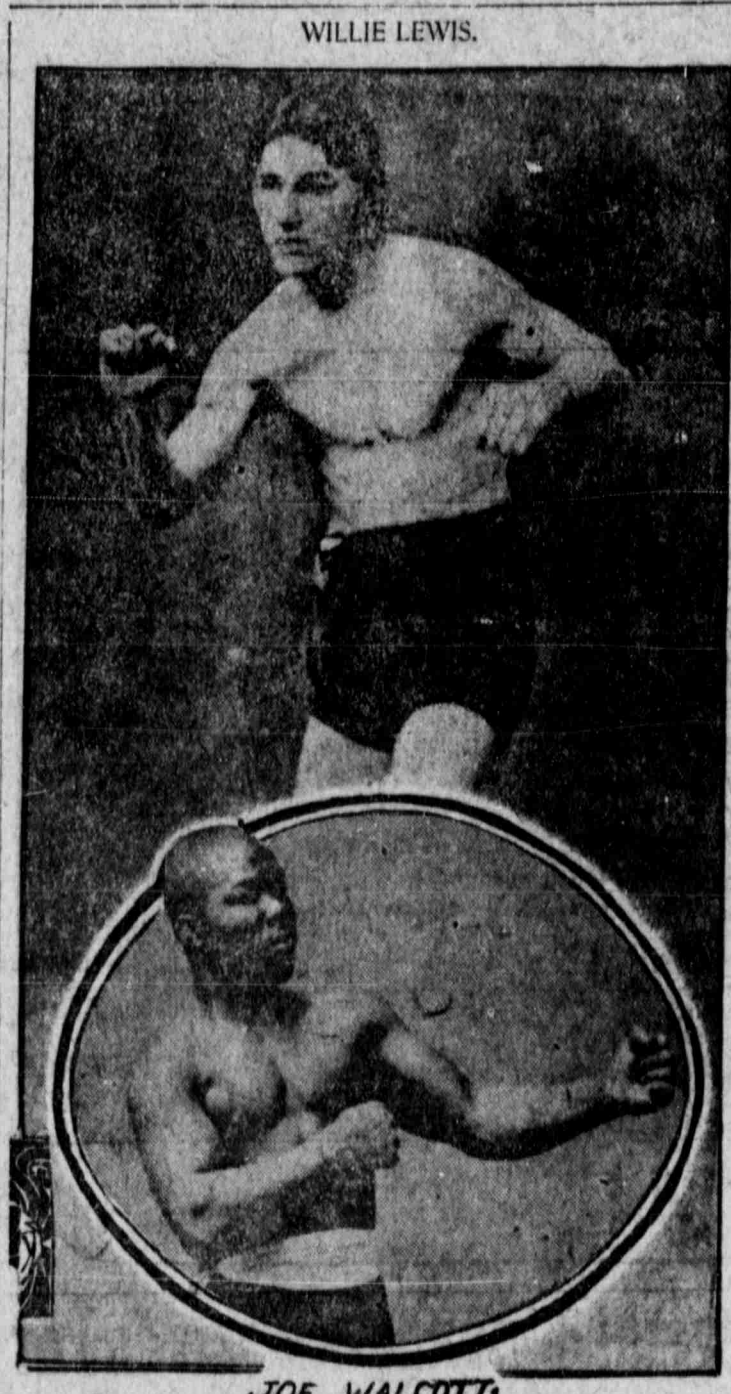

Lewis thinks that he can knock out any welterweight that he can land his right on.

With this Barbados Wonder, however, it may take more than a wallop to gain the title. Walcott is a fighting marvel. That is, he has been for several years. No one has a real line on him now, for a few months ago he accidentally shot himself through the right hand, smashing two of the bones. He has not done any fighting worth mentioning since then, and may not be able to deliver the old-time wallop that was so much feared by all the fighters big and little. Still, Walcott is a tough customer. He used to fight big and tuck with Tommy West, one of the roughest middle-weights in the ring, and he knocked out Joe "Bosnyak" Gans, thereby taking the "Giant Killer" title. He took great pride in challenging Jeffries after that, and would undoubtedly have had more enough to get into a ring with the huge champion.

Walcott looks like a gorilla. He has the same enormous length of arm, the same bulging chest and a head that slopes back from his eyes like an ape's. He has a jaw heavy enough for a gorilla.

Walcott is two shades darker than the rest of the world. When he fights he laughs and when he laughs it is time to duck or run away.

If Willie Lewis can get away with the "Black Demon" even now he will deserve a lot of credit.

JOE WALCOTT.

BOWLERS PREPARE FOR NATIONAL TOURNEY

Eastern members of the executive committee of the American Bowling Congress, who met in Chicago for the important meeting in that city Tuesday, called for the purpose of arranging for the national tournament in March, expect to accomplish more for this section in the interests of bowling than has ever been done in the past five years.

Not since the tournament was held in Buffalo, where the sport between East and West began, has the East shown such interest in the national event, and with no cloud now in the horizon to prevent a fully successful tournament, the great West and the East are united in the hope of a better bowling season than ever before.

Having its inception in the East, delegates to the national tournament were not surprised that the sport and outgrowth of the game of bowling were made a major item of the meeting. The great West and the East are united in the hope of a better bowling season than ever before.

At the meeting Thursday many important matters connected with the Louisville tournament will be considered, and Chicago delegates will be expected to report on the progress of the bowling season in the East.

TERRY AND "BAT"

Philadelphia Promoter Offers Them Eighty Per Cent. of Gross Receipts.

M'GOVERN ACCEPTS.

Every Effort Will Be Made to Get Nelson to Agree to Conditions.

That every effort is being made by the fight promoter of Philadelphia to bring about a match between Battling Nelson and Terry McGovern, was shown last night when Jack McGuigan, matchmaker of the National A. C. of that city, who recently offered a purse of $5,000 for the men to fight for in a six-round bout, made a further inducement to the fighters by offering them eighty per cent of the gross receipts in case they amounted to more than the $5,000.

As soon as McGovern's manager received this news he accepted it, and told McGuigan over the long-distance telephone that he was ready to sign the articles immediately. Nelson, who is in Indianapolis this week, will be informed of McGovern's offer today by Joe Nolan, of Cincinnati. McGuigan says if he gets the bout the price for tickets will be $2 up to $10.

HACKENSCHMIDT TO MEET MADRALI

The victory of Ahmed Madrali, the giant Turk, over Tom Jenkins, of America, has boomed his stock to such an extent that the public has demanded that George Hackenschmidt give him a return bout. The "Russian Lion" has agreed to meet the Turk again, and the pair have signed articles for a contest, which is to be fought before the Douglas A. C. of Chicago, Mass., between Graco-Roman rules. The affair will take place some time in December in London. Madrali lost to Hackenschmidt in their first match in a hurry. The Russian got a hammerlock and twisted his opponent's arm until it was broken just at the elbow.

He has been matched to meet "Art" Simms, the Akron (O.) fighter, for ten rounds at a show to be held just outside of Pittsburgh on Nov. 6. These men ought to put up a warm encounter, as they both are aggressive, clever and hard punchers. They will battle at 130 pounds.

Murphy Anxious to Fight. Tommy Murphy, realizing that he has not got a chance of getting on a return fight with Terry McGovern, has authorized his manager, Johnny Oliver, to get him a fight with some one else. Boy Billiard Wonder Will Meet the Best Men That Europe Can Produce.

Willie Hoppe, the boy billiardist, ends this week for Paris, where he will engage in match or academy games as occasion may offer. Nothing definite has been heard on this side as to whether academy games may continue through the winter.

As Hoppe was unable to entice George Slosson into a match game here by challenge, backed by a forfeit of $500, he goes to Paris in the hope of obtaining a match with Champion Vignaux, or any of the other stars. Reports from Paris are to the effect that Maria, the Spanish champion, had returned from a visit to Spain, and with Sutton, Vignaux, Barutell, Garner and some others, is ready for a winter's work. It is said that Schaefer will not go to Paris this winter but will remain in Chicago, where he has opened a new room with Clarence Green.

In the absence of all the best professional billiardists in Paris, energetic roomkeepers on this side are looking about to find the best available short-stops to be matched, and they are also bringing forward the best material among the amateurs. In Chicago, Clarence Slosson has been the leading amateur to the front, while in New York Maurice Daly, having already given several very interesting matches, has in mind more of a new and promising nature. Mr. Daly is now trying to get a match with the Spanish champion, Maria, who is expected to be a contest of 1,500 to 2,000 points in length.
